

THINK LOCAL BUY LOCAL SUPPORT YOUR CHAMBER MEMBERS
give locally made products
& gift certificates

KAYAK RAFFLE WINNER

Lou Siracusa of Linda's Flowers and Gifts is the happy winner of the 10' kayak which benefited the Greater Wakefield Chamber Scholarship Fund. Many thanks to Raise A Dock for co-sponsoring the prize. Pictured l - r: Chris Racine & Cathie Chasse of Profile Bank representing the Chamber, Linda and Lou Siracusa of Linda's Flowers and Gifts, Denise Roy-Palmer of WEDCO & Chamber President, and Tom Lavender Chamber Vice President.

ALL YOU NEED TO KNOW...

(to stay in Compliance with NH Labor Laws)

The Alton Business Association and Profile Bank extend an invitation to businesses/owners, schools, municipalities, managers, contractors, subcontractors, and students to attend an Informational Seminar presented by the NH Dept of Labor on 11/28/2007 6:30-8:30 pm @ Prospect Mountain High School Auditorium 242 Suncook Valley Road, Alton, NH; RSVP to Profile Bank at 603-875-4100 ext 104. Topics of discussion: legislative updates, notification requirements, payment of wages, youth employment, question and answer period; refreshments and networking.

CHAMBER BOARD CHANGES

The Board welcomes the addition of Sarah Hayes as a Director. Sarah is a Wakefield native, works for Hayes Real Estate, and serves on the Parks & Rec committee and the Board for St. John's Community ay School.

She'll replace Matt Lavoie who has had to resign due to scheduling conflicts. Thanks to Matt for close to three years of service. Dan Pelletier has also resigned due to time and distance conflicts and we thank Dan for his year's service. As your Chamber moves ahead, we are looking for members willing to serve as Directors for single three-year terms (bylaws mandate term limits). If you are interested, contact Cheri Schlenker 539-1500 X 405.

Wakefield Heritage Commission WHITE ELEPHANT SALE

The Wakefield Heritage Commission is planning a great White Elephant Sale for May 30, 2008. Profits will benefit the Union Railroad station, the Spinney Meeting House, and the Lovell-Union Grange. Pam Judge asks that you save the date, and as you do spring cleaning think about donating gently used items for this worthy cause. No clothing, please. Call Pam at 522-9000 x204 if you need a pick up for bulky items.

E.T. HINES NEWS

Build Your Own

Gift Baskets or Gift Boxes

Order by December 7th and receive 10% off. Ask for Kathleen or Rita. For more information, call: 522-0138 E.T. Hines Mercantile Co. LLC, 24 High Street, Sanbornville, NH 03872

WELLNESS MASSAGE

HOLIDAY SPECIAL 1 Hour Massage $45

Gift Certificates Available - Watch for Specials on www.BeckyCoatesLMT.com

<<http://www.beckycoateslmt.com/>> Becky Coates
LMT Call 986-9395

Located in the Garvin Building 3 High Street,
2nd Floor, Sanbornville

WAKEFIELD INN NEWS

Want to cook like a Pro, or just learn some Basic Skills? Wakefield Inn is starting cooking classes in January. Learn knife skills and chop like a Chef. Learn how to make soups and sauces, and Amazing Entrees. Classes will be held every Wednesday evening from 6:30-9:30 pm starting on January 9th. Each class will include discussion of wine and food pairing as well as enjoying the food made in class. Cost is $50, Call 522-8272 to reserve, as space is limited to 6 per class. We will also be starting classes for kids on Saturday, but Janelle Martin will have more info on that later on.